

STUDENTS TO PRESENT "H. M. S. PINAFORE"

Girls Pep Club Organizes at First Meeting

Girls Urge Boys To Form Similar Organization

A Girls Pep Club has been organized at Southwest. At the first meeting, in the auditorium, the following girls were elected as officers:

President.....Jean Fitch
Vice-President.....Julia Fremon
Secretary.....June Heger

Miss Murray and Miss Price are co-sponsors of this organization.

Three committees were appointed to decide the name, the costume, and the cheers that the girls are going to adopt. The committee on names consists of Betty Jean Funke, Barbara Lanctot, Jean Davis, and Virginia Ziebig. Members of the costume committee are Verda Kautz, Elaine Huebner, Betty Bock, and Peggy Jackson. The girls who have been appointed to collect cheers are Lorraine Daniels, June Campbell, and Millie Burns.

The girls have approved a style and color of sweater. These sweaters may be worn by anyone, as they are not limited to the girls of the club alone.

Any girl who buys an athletic pass is eligible for membership in the club.

The purpose of the organization is to promote attendance at athletic events, to promote good sportsmanship and to develop organized cheering.

The girls would like to urge the boys to form an organization similar to their own. A group of boys would be invaluable in furnishing number and volume to the cheering section. Any boy who is interested, see Mr. Clark, who is attempting to find a sponsor for such a group.

College Club Sponsors "Taming of the Shrew", Oct. 23, at American

On Monday night, October 23, the College Club of St. Louis will sponsor the presentation of "The Taming of the Shrew" at the American Theater, starring Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne.

Students are urged to arrange upper balcony parties at this Scholarship Benefit. A delightful performance of Shakespeare's gayest comedy is assured and a worthy cause will be promoted by a good attendance on this night.

New Pageant To Be Presented For School Administrators, Feb. 25

The American Association of School Administrators will hold its annual meeting this school year in St. Louis during the week beginning February 25.

The evening of Sunday, February 25, has been reserved by the president of the association for the St. Louis Public Schools. The local executive committee has decided to present a Musical Pageant because there has been a definite request for a repetition of the "Musica Americana" presented in March, 1938.

Mr. Ernest Hares, supervisor of Instrumental Music, has been placed in charge of the preparation of this Pageant. An all-high-school orchestra is to be formed. Choral groups will also be developed.

Group 14 First To Pay 100% For "Pioneer"

Miss Randolph's advisory group, number 14, was the first to pay up 100% for the "Pioneer."

Marjorie Guenther, salesman for group 14, turned in the 100% paid-up account to Jimmie Hardt, business manager, on October 4.

It is hoped that many more groups will have reached 100% by the time this issue reaches you.

Principal Singing And Dancing Roles Already Assigned

All Music Groups And Many Dancers To Participate

"H. M. S. Pinafore," or "The Lass Who Loved a Sailor," is to be given by Southwest's music and dancing groups. The date is tentatively set for December 14 and 15.

The nine principal roles in the operetta have been assigned as follows:

Dick Watkins.....Ralph
Gareth Gish.....Captain Corcoran
John Decker.....Sir Joseph Porter
George Mueller.....Dick Deadeye
Bob Wolfe.....Bill Bobstay
Howard Weber.....Bob Beckett
Charlotta Peterson.....Mrs. Cripps
Alvera Nickel.....Josephine
Dorothy Hutchings.....Hebe

A select chorus of about 50 chosen from the A Cappella Choir, Boys Glee Club, Girls Glee Club, and Mixed Chorus will take part in the action of the play. All music groups will participate in the big scenes.

The Dance Group organized Wednesday, September 27, and immediately work was started for the operetta.

Jim Wallenberg and four girls, Gloria Sicking, Delphine Wolfe, Junebelle Cravens, and Lois Rehm, will be the dance principals.

The Sailors Chorus, a select group, in costumes of blue, white, and silver, will be an outstanding number. The very beautiful Moonlight Ballet will bring a change of pace from the tapping, fast moving chorus.

Over 100 girls now belong to the dance classes which meet every Tuesday and Wednesday after school.

Barbara Lanctot and Doris Bott are designing the costumes for the principals and chorus.

Jim Coffey and Rolla Williams are already working on the designs for scenery. Others will be appointed soon to assist them.

First Fire Drill Exit Takes 3½ Minutes

The time required to empty the building on the occasion of Southwest's first fire drill, October 5, was three and one-half minutes. Returning to classrooms took four and one-half minutes.

Mr. Sackett reports that he was pleased with the co-operation of the pupils.

S-h-h-h - - - - Operetta Secrets!

Don't whisper this to a soul, but—

Dick Watkins, the leading man in the forthcoming operetta, chosen because of his voice, may try to put one over on you. He's only a first term-er, nevertheless.

And if Gareth Gish is to play papa, he must either grow a beard or borrow one. Hold your beards, gentlemen!

Then here's another bee for your bonnet. The cast seems to have evil intentions, for they are going so far as to transport a ship to our very stage! (Hope you're not subject to sea-sickness!) But even if you are, perhaps the fact that John Decker makes an admirable admiral will make up for it.

Book Review at P. T. A. Meeting, October 17

Mrs. George Thompson will review the book, "Grapes of Wrath," a current best seller, at the next meeting of the P. T. A. on Tuesday, October 17.

Due to the absence of Mrs. Livesay, who is at the Missouri State P. T. A. convention at Kirksville, Mrs. Paul Jones, first vice-president, will preside over the meeting, which will start at 1:15.

PLUNGE IN, BOYS

That "you've got to be a football hero" isn't so, fellows. Maybe your blood does boil and your thoughts do darken with murderous intent when your girl begins sighing over that husky halfback—the one who wears his shoulder pads so well. Ah, but cheer up, my hearties. Don't be discouraged just because you can't be in the line of scrimmage. Cheer enthusiastically for a touchdown and just remember the sorry plight of a gridiron hero after the game. Gone are his shoulder pads. A black eye, a patched forehead, and some missing teeth might possibly be his reward for playing well. And while Husky Hero's parents cart him safely home in the family bus, you and she can be with the others celebrating the victory and having fun.

Now chances are that this feminine friend is an active member in the Girls Pep Club. Why not impress her with your good sportsmanship and loyalty by joining the other Southwest boys who are planning to form a similar Boys Pep Club? Mr. Clark is supervising the organization of the association until a sponsor, who is as eager and as sincere as the boys themselves are, can be found.

The girls have a head start, boys. It's up to you to plunge in and forge ahead. Buy a season football ticket and scurry up to Mr. Clark's niche.

Be you boy or girl, however, let's all endeavor to make an attractive showing at each game in order to encourage our own team. Other high schools will be impressed by our manifestation of such constructive school spirit.

HOLD THAT LINE!

"Rah, Rah, Rah!"
"Sis, Boom, Bah!"
The murmur died away;
And a player lost his courage
And with it lost the day.

"Hold that line!"
"Hold that line!"
It carried across the field
And the players heard and, hearing,
Refused "that line" to yield.

FRIDAY, THE THIRTEENTH

How many of you, awakening this morning in the early dawn, and pulling yourself from the arms of Morpheus, realized what day it is and scurried back under the covers? Yes, it's Friday, the thirteenth!

It's safe to say that many of you lay in bed this morning, and tried your very hardest to forget the date. When you realized that evasion of the day was impossible, you spent precious moments wondering whether getting up on the wrong side of the bed would further irritate the evil spirits. Putting the left sock on first, and walking around the block to break the wicked charm of the black cat who crossed your path were also subjects for serious consideration on your part. Black cats, the fear of walking under a ladder, and all the rest of the symbols of the powers of the mystic will parade across the minds of everyone of you who thinks, for a moment, of today's date. Today is the day of celebration for all the evil characters of the realm of superstition.

The superstitions of today are relics of the thoughts and customs of primitive man, which have been repeated in fireside tales, and have existed as a part of our family traditions. But every intelligent person knows that these tokens are completely powerless to bring luck, either good or bad. The disappointment that is supposed to follow a person who sits on a table may have originated with someone's sitting on a weak table and breaking his leg!

Can't we, the people of 1939, treat these bug-a-boos of superstition in the light of reason rather than according to tradition?

Eventually we may even be able to wake on Friday, the thirteenth, with no sense of impending doom.

RAH-RAH-RAH! S-O-U-T-H-W-E-S-T!

Central—The News

Central publishes 7 issues for 25 cents—a price of 3.57 cents per issue. Roosevelt has 15 issues for 50 cents—3.33 cents per issue. But "The Pioneer" tops them all with 8 issues for 25 cents—3.125 cents an issue.

A new type of exchange set up is working between Wentworth Military Academy and the Ramirez Military Academy, Bogota, South America. Under this plan twelve South Americans will study at Wentworth, while twelve Wentworth cadets will study at Ramirez.

With the first issue this semester, Soldan's Scrippage becomes the one completely streamlined high school newspaper in St. Louis.

S W SCRIBE CHATS WITH MAJOR HICKEY AT ARENA

A reporter from the "Pioneer", who took advantage of the Board of Education's offer of a half holiday to see the horse show on October 4 was fortunate enough to gain an interview with Major Hickey, the chief executive of Battery B, 16th Field Artillery (Black Horse Battery) of U. S. A. The major gave the following answers to the questions put to him:

Q. How many men came with the battery?
A. Two officers and 78 men.

Q. What is the average age of the men?
A. They are in their early twenties, probably around twenty-three.

Q. How are the men that take part in this type of program picked?

Lets Get Acquainted

For the subject of this column's rather late debut we chose the Student Council officers. The head fellow, or president, is better known to most of us as "C. O. D.," but just to be different we'll call him Charles Davis. When we approached Mr. Davis, he was diligently studying a speech for which has soon to be called upon, so we asked him a few questions and left rather hurriedly. In the first place Charles would like to thank everyone for the co-operation he received in the recent Student Council election. He says, "I will try to serve the school as best I can."

Another person of importance who must be ready to take the president's place in any emergency is the vice-president, Bob Walker. You got acquainted with Bob through this column last semester, just after he had designed the school seal.

The only girl among these officers is Josephine Rolfi, better known as "Jo," who holds the title of secretary. We like this young lady for her all-around good naturedness and dependability. On her program of hobbies, athletics rates high.

The fellow who holds up the business end of the deal is Vincent Cunetto, who acts as treasurer. Vincent hasn't much to say about the job but that can be accounted for. He is the strong, silent type who keeps his ideas pretty much to himself.

A. A number of recruits who like to handle horses are picked and given a routine training course to follow. The men in this program were mostly from Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Q. What type gun is used and what do they shoot?
A. The guns are 75 MM and 30-30 sub-caliber blanks were used in them for this program.

And so ends the interview with Major Hickey, one of the men of whom America should be proud.

Dramatic Class To Give Two Plays Soon

The members of the Dramatic Class are rehearsing two plays which they hope to give in the near future.

One of the two plays, "The Pot Boiler," depicts the trials and tribulations which arise when a conceited and high strung director attempts to rehearse a very temperamental cast.

Jimmy Reina does a bit of very realistic acting in the role of the director. Paul Finot is right at home in the part of a cynical spectator. Others in the play are Eugene Bean, Marilyn James, Gloria Pearlman, Paul Santhuff and George Thornton.

The second play is a comedy entitled "Our Aunt From California." The whole play is built around the amusing situation which arises when Aunt Mary wies she cannot come; and Sally, one of her nieces, decides to impersonate the aunt. The cast is made up of the following members: Eleanor Carey, Antoinette Good, Marian Hampton, Lane Hughes, Ruth Horton and Helen Stone.

Biology Classes On a Spree

No doubt you've seen groups of students from time to time boldly leaving the building brandishing butterfly nets or perhaps re-entering it gaily bedecked with autumn's finest array of leaves. The biology I classes are on a spree!

To be specific, Miss Nagel, Miss Nuebling and Mr. Polster are conducting a series of insect and leaf expeditions into Tower Grove Park. The leaf collections are individual projects and so far 21 different kinds have been gathered on one trip. The insect hunts, however, are group projects.

"I don't know whether we gathered them all last year or whether they are just naturally scarce this year," said Miss Nagel, "but there don't seem to be many grasshoppers."

The purpose of the expeditions is twofold: first, to study the material as a biology project; and, second, to collect material for use in laboratory study later in the term.

FASHIONS AND FANCIES

By BARBARA LANCTOT

Dedicated to the feminine portion of Southwest: Have you school spirit that longs to show itself in some tangible form? And would you like a good-looking outfit of green and yellow to accompany you to the coming football games?

The girls of the Pep Club are choosing colors and materials for possible outfits for themselves, and for anyone else who would care to purchase them. The latest idea is to combine a green cotton cardigan with a darker green skirt, and then to add a gold kerchief or skull-cap. Let's all turn out and support the team, for a solid mass of school colors can do more for the players' morale than almost anything else:

Have You Heard . . . The lovely song Virginia Phillips has written? Jerry Stutz sang it in the Band Tag performance. That the Girls' Pep Club is searching for a striking outfit to wear at the football games? (Keep your eyes on the ball, boys.) The peculiar sounds emitting from 320 at various periods during the day? Those are the French I classes learning the intricacies of French vowels.

Beauty Hints . . . Don't expect your finger nails to react favorably under a sudden barrage of attention. It takes steady concentrated effort. Take the case of Mathilda Jane for instance. Mathilda studied conscientiously for her E in physics and made a straight 97 in English, but she secretly longed for glamorous finger nails. One night she rashly tossed aside her books and commenced. The final result was rather different from what she had visioned. The polish was peculiarly streaked, the moons were unhappily small and vague but Mathilda firmly resolved eventually to make an E in finger nail artistry. Why don't you?

Senior Survey . . .

Hi-ya, Seniors:

Now that we are organized as a group, it's up to us as seniors to show these freshmen some real school spirit. Remember, they follow in our footsteps, so don't let's walk in our stocking feet!

If you should hear a sudden "swish" between 10:55 and 11:35 a. m., don't be alarmed. It's Gladys Manewal and Ralph Rotty dashing down to Roosevelt for a German 6 class. Ah me, such ambition!

Mabel Drane has added a kitten to her small menagerie of a dog, duck, and two turtles. The newest member, a mangy looking bundle of cat, was found in the bushes on the school lawn during the fifth lunch period the other day. Mabel's latest report is that her new prodigy is getting cuter every day.

Marion Jean Berman was enjoying her hamburger the other day when she suddenly swallowed and then started to search frantically for her lunch check, which wasn't to be found. How's the digestion, Marion?

Did you know that George Nolte does all of the muscle work around his house? At least that's what he told his Home Living 2 class; and when asked to give some examples of his strenuous tasks, he replied, "Puttin' up the screens and taking 'em down, and puttin' up the clothes line and takin' it down." Sort of a put it up and take it down business.

Marian Hampton said it took plenty of nerve to be the first student to wear the new knee-length stockings. However, Marian stood up under the ribbing very well.

And now — keep out of the headline "cause a "loaf" never gets anywhere.

'Bye now!

Southwesterners Take "Youth Hostel" Trip

During the summer vacation, Bob Williamson and Jack Stradel, two daring and adventuresome youths of Southwest High, followed the "Youth Hostel Trails" vacation trip as announced in a bulletin to the schools last June. They fastened their knapsacks to their bicycles, traveled 433 miles in 17 days and called it a wonderful trip.

Jack and Bob were the first Hostellers on the Missouri Ozark trail. But the urge to go on and take that next hill and the fun of camping out more than made up for the lack of comradeship.

Both fellows thought the cost was very reasonable, less than $1 a day.

The boys thoroughly enjoyed the audience of 50 citizens of Richwoods, Mo., who watched them repair a flat tire. This proves, conclusively enough, that flat tires are an oddity in those parts. Or was it the mighty Southwesterners, and not the flat tire, that attracted the attention?

The boys had so successful and enjoyable a trip that they are thinking of taking the "Youth Hostel Trail" through the Smoky Mountain region next year.

Former Humor Editor Of "Pioneer" Now Works On Centralia Paper

All Semester 8 Pupils In One Advisory Group

Something new and different is the arrangement by which SENIORS (eights) are meeting for the first time in one newly organized advisory group—a group composed only of SENIORS.

This arrangement has been made in order to simplify the many, many matters upon which the seniors must decide.

In a meeting after school, the following officers were elected:

President.....Bob Wolf
Vice-President.....Herbert Waeckerle
Secretary.....Doris Homewood
Treasurers—

Beverly Simon, Don Mulkey
Sergeant-at-Arms.....Frank Vellios

The motto and social committees have been chosen from those seniors who study during the first or seventh periods.

Irene Shipley is in charge of all designs submitted for the senior buttons.

Eyes and Ears of the Corridor

Sid S. to Herb W.—“How old do you think Mr. Young is?”

Herb: — “I don't know, but I heard he taught Caesar.”

Vic T.:—“I think that driver in the car ahead of us is an old teacher of mine.”

Sam W.: — “What makes you think so?”

Vic T.:—“Well, she seems mighty stubborn about letting me pass.”

Physiography Student: “I could answer that if I had a globe to look at.”

Miss Buehner: “Well, you haven't a globe to spin, but you might use your head.”

Pat M.: “I wonder why there are so many more auto wrecks than railroad accidents.”

Byron W.: “That's easy. Did you ever hear of a fireman hugging an engineer?”

Coach (sending in sub.): “Remember, son, it's for the old almatrater, but don't let the referee see you.”

University Prep. News

Soph.—“I've a notion to give you a piece of my mind.”

Freshie — “Okay, but first I'll rush in and get Mr. Chervenka.”

Soph.—“Why?”

Freshie—“I've heard it rumored that he can split an atom.”

Schoolboy Wisdom (from an examination paper): A passive verb is one in which the subject is the sufferer, such as, “He was married to her.”

MUSCLE! YOU THINK SO!

Even though you've seen the football team in their spiffy new uniforms, there are a few facts you probably don't know about them.

When a player steps out on the field he carries approximately twelve pounds of suit with him worth nearly $35. The “suit” includes shoulder pads, hip pads, and thigh pads, woolen socks and uniform game socks, and a quarter sleeve shirt beside what you see on the outside — helmet, jersey, pants and shoes. (No wonder they look so husky!)

The uniforms are yellow with a green stripe from neck to cuff and stripes on the sleeves.

The “B” team also is now thoroughly supplied with suits. They carry the same equipment except that their jerseys are made of durine instead of wool. Also, the jerseys have green background with gold shoulders.

SW-BEAUMONT GAME TOMORROW

Southwest Conquers South Side Catholic In Grid Opener

For the opening of the 1939 football season, Southwest defeated South Side Catholic, 13-6, Saturday, September 23.

Charles Feeney, Southwest halfback, scored all the Longhorn points. He went over for touchdowns in the first and fourth quarters and kicked the extra point in the fourth.

South Side scored its only touchdown in the second period and the score remained tied until the last few minutes of play, when Southwest scored its second touchdown.

Southwest's play was hindered by penalties imposed on them. The Longhorns were in South Side's territory many times, but were pushed back by penalties.

The starting lineup was as follows:

Donati—L. E.	Schmiderer—R. T.
Garegnani—L. T.	Bischnan—E. E.
Galimberti—L. G.	Magoon—Q. B.
Keaton—C.	Feeney—L. H.
Crocker—R. G.	Gerhard—R. H.
	Messana—F. B.

Golf Team to Enter Tourney, October 14

The annual Public High School golf tournament will start October 14 at the Forest Park links.

Coach Brew reports that four of last year's team are back: Bill Benson, George Kuehner, Bill Boehmer, and Bob Fahle.

Cleveland, last year's victor, is not so fortunate, having lost most of the team through graduation.

The winner will be determined by the total score of each team, and each school is limited to six players. Southwest's team has been practicing for some time so the team should make a good showing in the league.

FOUR SOUTHWEST GIRLS ON CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Four girls attending Southwest High School played on the Pop Kola Softball Team. This team was the world's junior champion also winning the league, park, city, and state titles.

The girls are Louise Huthsing, Frances Huthsing, Lorene Pilkington, and Marcella Robert.

Longhorns Against Strong Blue Jacket Team Saturday

Tomorrow afternoon Southwest meets Beaumont at the high school stadium.

Beaumont won their first game from the high school champions, Soldan, 18-0; but, because of an ineligible Beaumont player, the game was replayed last Monday.

Southwest made a good showing against an experienced McKinley team and they should do just as well against Beaumont.

Beaumont will be handicapped by the loss of Dick Keller, the ineligible player, who was a great factor in the defeat of Soldan.

With our new cheer leaders and the well organized girls pep club, the students ought to be able to yell our team to victory.

Goldbugs Sting Longhorns, 13-0

In their first venture into the High School Interscholastic Football League, the Southwest Longhorns were thrown by a powerful McKinley team, 13-0.

During the first half Southwest equaled all McKinley drives into their territory. Gordon Bischnan, Southwest end, wrenched his elbow in this half and was out for the rest of the game.

The second half proved very disastrous for the Longhorns. McKinley scored her thirteen points in this half, seven in the third period and six in the fourth.

A Southwest fumble led to the first McKinley touchdown. Leo Milla, McKinley halfback, scored and Trummer kicked the extra point.

In the fourth period, McKinley made a continued drive, Boris Martin finally going around right end to score.

Charles Feeney, Longhorn left half, prevented McKinley from scoring more often by his long punting.

Southwest's new cheer leaders made their first appearance in this game and proved very capable.

The starting lineups were as follows:

Southwest	Position	McKinley
Donati	L. E.	Goodwin
Garegnani	L. T.	McKenna
Galimberti	L. C.	Eigelberger
Keaton	C.	Shnauly
Crocker	R. G.	Houchin
Schmiderer	R. T.	McCowley
Bischnan	E. E.	Lehm
Magoon	Q. B.	Martin
Feeney	L. H.	Anderson
Warren	R. H.	Trummer
Messana	F. B.	Milla

ZAHARIA'S COLUMN

Well, we're in! Yes, we are in the city high school football league. September 30 marked our debut in actual league competition. For “green-horns” we made a creditable showing during the first half of the McKinley game. Nervousness and an injury, however, took their toll in the second half and resulted in a relapse for our defense.

Losing in true sportsmanship is not in the least dishonorable. Don't give up! Root, root, and root some more for Southwest's Longhorns. They'll go places fast. Up to date only 700 passes have been sold. Let's raise that number speedily and attend every game at the stadium, $1.00 for 21 games. Here's a list of the number and position of the varsity team:

No.	Name	Position
20	Hunt, John	L. H.
21	Galimberti, John	L. G.
22	Winkler, Edward	Q. B.
23	Fairchild, Fred	R. E.
24	Massey, Hugh Lee	R. T.
25	Downing, Lyle	L. H.
26	Stibal, Lewis	R. E.
27	Brummell, Leroy	R. G.
28	Robinson, Jack	Cen.
29	Marlo, Louis	L. G.
30	Buehler, Jack	R. G.
31	Keaton, Melvin	Cen.
32	de Leon, Armando	R. H.
33	McGrane, Wm.	F. B.
34	Heckel, Wm.	R. H.
35	Kleisly, Fred	L. G.
36	Warren, Dick	L. H.
37	Magoon, Paul	Q. B.
38	Oehler, Bill	R. H.
39	Roberts, Linton	R. E.
40	Feeney, Charles	L. H.
41	Schmiderer, Vernon	R. T.
42	Bischnan, Gordon	R. E.

43	Gerhard, Harris	R. H.
44	Bova, Nicholas	L. T.
45	Donati, Leo	L. E.
46	Daily, Wm.	L. E.
47	Messana, Joe	F. B.
48	Loving, Collier	L. E.
49	Crocker, Harold	R. G.
50	Gualdoni, Charles	R. H.
51	Garegnani, Vincent	L. T.
52	Pucci, Benney	L. T.
53	Miller, Ebert	Cen.
54	Willis, Clar	R. T.

Things look up for our tennis teams. Why? Because last year it fought to a terrific tie for last place. This year, however, it ranks fifth, ahead of Blewett, Central, and McKinley. Statistics show:

Singles: Jack Spenko—won 5, lost 2; Lloyd Steinmeyer, 4-3; Irwin Holdener, 0-5; Wm. Paulsen, 1-1.

Doubles: Mecker and Davis, 3-3; Blaich and Grey, 0-1. Totals: Won 13—Lost 15.

All did rather well, with the exception of Holdener, who was “off-form” all season, as compared to last year. The team as a whole deserves credit.
